Mt. Vernon Adult Day Health Care Center is designed to provide daycare to seniors and adults with disabilities who need a supervised setting during the day due to changes in their cognitive and/or functional abilities. The program provides health monitoring by a Registered Nurse, therapeutic activities designed by a Certified Recreation Therapist to include field trips and entertainment, assistance with personal care, and nutritious meals and snacks. Capacity is 45.

Transportation is available by FASTRAN. Fees are based on a sliding scale. Minimum attendance is 2 days per week, 6 hours per day. Offers a monthly evening support group for caregivers.

The TTY telephone number to call is 711.

The center is licensed by the Virginia Department of Social Services and is a member of the Virginia Adult Day Services Association (VADSA).
