Richmond Behavioral Health Authority's (RBHA) Grace House is an intensive residential program for adults diagnosed with a serious behavioral health disorder or who are at significant risk of returning to an institutional setting. Individuals live in a structured rehabilitative, licensed Assisted Living Facility. Supports and services are provided by licensed RBHA clinical staff, a psychiatrist, nurse, and facility staff. The housing and some services are provided by vendors contracting with RBHA.

Within a safe, sanitary, secure, and hospitable environment, consumers have access to:

- Instruction on daily living and independent living skills,
- Recreational and social activities,
- Transportation,
- Medication administration,
- Routine evaluation by program psychiatrist,
- Behavioral monitoring and programming,
- Clinical case management and crisis intervention.

Individuals returning to community living from a state psychiatric facility and who are currently receiving services at the RBHA may qualify for these services
