The Westwood Group is a solutions-focused behavioral physiology practice that was formed in 1983 and currently includes licensed clinical psychologists, social workers (LCSW), and professional counselors (CP). They serve individuals, adolescents, adults, and seniors and are able to work with them as individuals, couples, families, and groups providing comprehensive psychological evaluations.

Treatment is provided for adjustment disorders, anger management, anxiety, phobias, depression, attention disorders, couples/relationship issues, domestic violence, divorce or separation adjustment, eating disorders, geriatrics, interpersonal problems, stress management, men's issues, women's issues, and more.

They also perform geriatric, cognitive, and functional assessments and check for depression, memory loss, and anxiety.
