Our Lady of Peace, a nonprofit, non-denominational retirement community sponsored by the Catholic Diocese of Richmond, provides a residential and assisted living care facility. Services can include assistance with activities of daily living, personal care, housekeeping, and laundry services, van transportation, a full schedule of social, recreational, and religious activities, pastoral care for residents and families, onsite hairstylist and barber, a volunteer-run convenient store, and physical, occupational and speech therapists.

The facility offers a choice of several floor plans ranging from studios to two-bedroom apartments. Charges no entrance fees. Month-to-month leases are available. Capacity is 140 residents in assisted living and memory care.
