The Lamb Center provides a daytime drop-in homeless shelter for individuals who are experiencing homelessness. The center offers showers, laundry, and daily breakfast and lunch. Counseling is their core program and encompasses spiritual, psychological, life, and employment dimensions. Support services include bible studies, employment opportunities, housing and job counseling, AA meetings, a nurse practitioner clinic, a dental clinic, and much more. Our emphasis is on providing a community of fellowship, support, empowerment, and learning together.

Offers phones for local calls and confidential message service, haircuts, storage for personal items, mental health outreach and limited financial assistance for rent, utilities, transportation and medicine.

Makes referrals to other agencies. Also has Bible study twice daily. Located near Fairfax Circle. Seeks to develop pastoral relationships between staff and guests.

The Lamb Center is a partnership of local congregations loving and serving the poor and homeless; a safe place where lost souls make hard decisions that set them free for new life; a table that feeds not only the downcast and brokenhearted but also those who came along side.
