Woodley House owns and leases apartments and condominiums throughout Washington, DC. People in recovery live without 24 hour care and supervision as they reintegrate into the community. The Woodley House Life Skills Trainers provide weekly coaching, counseling support and skills training support to assist consumers so they can fully integrate into the community. The Life Skills Day Program focuses on mastering basic skills that will ease their transition toward self-sufficiency and successful independent living.

Contact Diane Spruill, Supportive Residential Lead, for more information about how to enter the Supported Independent Living Apartment Program. Call 202-328-4065 or email to dspruill@woodleyhouse.org
