

Center for Sickle Cell Disease

Available 24/7

No

Other Eligibility Criteria

No residency requirement

Family

No

Intake Process

Phone

Center for Sickle Cell Disease Howard University

<http://www.sicklecell.howard.edu/>

Main

(202) 806-7930

2121 Georgia Avenue NW

20059 DC

United States

Fee Structure

Fixed Fee

Payment Method(s)

Private Insurance

Languages Spoken

English

The Center provides for patient medical care, research, education, testing, counseling, screening and community involvement concerning all aspects of sickle cell diseases. All services of the Center are provided free of charge except for those services that involve Howard University Hospital. Screening tests for sickling disorders are done at the Center and are free.

Offers a weekly outpatient clinic for adults with sickle cell disease. The clinic is held each Tuesday from 8am until 12 Noon on the first floor, suite C, Howard University Hospital, 2041 Georgia Avenue NW in Washington DC. Call 202.865.1376 for more information.

Bus Line: Metrobus. Four blocks to the nearest subway stop.

Service Area(s)
Washington DC