Arlington Education and Employment Program (REEP) offers intensive beginning, intermediate, and advanced ESL classes. All classes include computer-assisted instruction. Visit the schedule of classes on the website and for the locations of classes.

Free outreach English classes are taught by volunteers. The classes are organized into two six-month cycles: January thru June, and July thru December. Registration and testing are not required and admission is on a first-come, first-served basis for each class session.

Intensive English Classes: Beginning, intermediate and advanced levels of intensive English instruction are offered in 12-week cycles at Clarendon Education Center, Thomas Jefferson Community Center, and Kenmore Middle School. Volunteers at these sites work s teacher's aides.
