Burke Lake Gardens is a housing community for low-income, independent seniors. Owned by the Arlington Assembly of God Church, Burke Lake Gardens strives to provide the best possible support to their community. Residents live in one bedroom apartments within the complex. The facility at Burke Lake Gardens is handicap-able for people with disabilities. We have accommodating elevators so residents can reach all the floors they wish with ease.

Burke Lake Gardens provides residents with twenty-four hour security, activities, trips, wellness programs and other services. The grounds are nestled in woods speckled with vegetable gardens.

Burke Lake Gardens apartments have 100 units. Apartments designed for mobility impaired individuals are available on a limited basis. The accessible units are located on different floors. The building entrances are wheelchair accessible. Public transportation is three block from the building: Metrobus and Fairfax Connector.
