Edinburgh Square offers a five-story, 96-unit apartment complex for very low to moderate-income elderly (age 62 and older) or individuals with a physical disability. One-bedroom apartments include a full kitchen. Edinburgh Greens provides 40 additional apartments.

Persons wishing to reside at Edinburgh Square must have an adjusted income that does not exceed federally established income limits for the Roanoke area. The amount paid for rent, including a utility allowance, will not exceed 30% of an eligible resident's adjusted income.

A community room for group events is onsite as well as lounge areas, laundry facilities on each floor, a resident library, a beauty parlor/barber shop, patios, and a large outdoor gardening area.

The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) subsidizes the rent. Edinburgh Square is operated by Coordinated Services Management
