Our Family Center is a peer run program. The day program is semi-structured with a couple of skill and knowledge building classes along with social support time. Each month there are also community outings. The structured day program is free and provides workshops, journaling, crafts, book club, annual variety show and more. Transportation may be available for Winchester and Frederick County for donation of $10 per month.

Lunch is provided at a minimum cost of $2 and a snack bar is available to buy drinks and snacks.

Attendance is by referral; no walk ins.
