The Reston Drop-In Center has a mission to provide a stress free, stigma free atmosphere for people age 18 and over who have experienced mental health issues or are homeless. The Center offers art group and computer groups, as well as a TV/DVD room and commercial kitchen. Free lunch is served every day. Facility is handicapped accessible.

A recreation program is part of the Center. Meetings are held every second Friday of each month to plan new activities like eating out, ball games and bowling. All are welcome to attend.

The Reston Drop-In Center for adult mental health consumers is open 5 days a week. The center has a computer group, arts and crafts, an exercise group, ping pong and a television room for relaxing. Reston Drop-in Center is located on the ground floor of Fairfax County's North County Human Services Building.
