People's Place is a recovery-based Psychosocial Rehabilitation program. Programs are provided to adults for two or more hours a day in a non-residential setting. Services are planned individually using a person-centered approach which engages the individual, family and provider team. Recovery goals and objectives are developed based on individual preferences, strengths and potentials.

People's Place offers structured day support services including:

- Therapeutic groups;
- Independent living skills instruction;
- Communication skills instruction;
- Community integration;
- Interpersonal and social skills development;
- Food preparation training;
- Menu planning;
- Finance management and budgeting;
- Arts and crafts.
