Easter Seals offers a Military Respite program that is designed for Navy and Air Force families who have children identified as Exceptional Family Members, who are diagnosed with highly-specialized medical or educational needs that require long-term assignments near major medical facilities or locations that support continuity of care.

Eligible Navy and Air Force families can receive up to 40 hours per month of in home respite care services for children at no cost to the family. Respite care services in the Washington, DC area will be provided by qualified caregivers recruited and trained in special needs care by Easter Seals.

In order to be eligible for this program, please contact Brooke Kaiser, Director of Respite Services, at bkaiser@eseal.org or 301-920-9718.
