Bath Community Hospital offers patients, with limited or no insurance coverage, help paying medical bills. Services include:

- Discounts, including a pay in full or uninsured discount;
- Payment Plans, including extended time, no finance charges and no credit reporting;
- Financial Assistance applications are available through the business office.

The Prescription Assistance Program assists eligible patients in obtaining medications at no cost. The program utilizes The Pharmacy Connection of the Virginia Health Care Foundation. Eligibility includes those patients that do not have prescription insurance coverage and meet income guidelines. Medicare Part D counseling and enrollment assistance is also available. For more information contact Lorri Batten, Social Worker, at 540-839-7188.
