Weinstein Jewish Community Center (JCC) offers opportunities for children and adults with intellectual or developmental disabilities, to participate in group activities.

The Weinstein JCC, in coordination with Jewish Family Services, offers social and recreational group for teens and young adults (ages 13-21) with special needs focusing on learning new skills and making friends. The group meets twice a month or goes on outings in the community to enjoy cooking, swimming, recreational sports and more.

Circle of Friends Adult Group is for adults with special needs, ages 22 and older. Participants provide their ideas and areas of interest, such as ceramics, water aerobics, bowling, movies, sporting events and activities are planned. Contact Shari Menlowe-Barck at 804-545-8611 or sbarck@weinsteinjcc.org for more details.
