The Auburn School offers respite services at Camp Aristotle to parents and caregivers of youth with challenges such as social awkwardness, restricted behavior, difficulty sustaining friendships or conversation and trouble interacting. Camp Aristotle at the Herndon campus is held for 7 weeks in the summer, serving Kindergarten through 12th graders. The camp day runs from 8:30 AM until 3:30 PM, with aftercare available until 5:30 PM. Sessions integrate social thinking and learning support so campers can build friendships, explore and have fun.

Contact the office for more information. You can register online.
