Piedmont Community Services owns and operates apartments for consumers in Franklin and Henry Counties who are in need of temporary housing or long-term residence because of their developmental disability, such as intellectual disabilities. These consumers are monitored very closely and often receive case management services or supportive services designed to enable them to live as independently as possible. These services are designed to help consumers integrate into the community. In some instances, Piedmont Community Services fulfills the responsibility of acting as the landlord for a smaller number of consumers who do not require more intensive services.
