The Lewis B. Puller, Jr. Veterans Benefits Clinic offers students the opportunity to assist veterans with filing claims for disability compensation with the Department of Veterans Affairs. Under attorney supervision, clinic students have the opportunity to interview clients, analyze medical records, communicate with health care providers, and craft strategies to help clients receive disability compensation. These services can have life-changing effects on the veterans we serve.

In recognition that veterans' disability issues go beyond their legal claims for benefits, William and Mary Law School has partnered with Virginia Commonwealth University's Center for Psychological Services and Development to help veterans address all of the health and disability concerns that may arise from their service to our nation. In furtherance of the national discourse on veterans law and issues affecting veterans, the Lewis B. Puller, Jr. Veterans Benefits Clinic hosts and moderates The Veterans Law and Benefits Blog.
