The Arlington County Community Services Board offers Community Support Team Services. The program provides comprehensive, community-based behavioral health services for adults with behavioral health disorders to help them achieve maximum level of functioning, minimize symptoms, reduce frequency of hospitalizations and enhance their recovery.

Services include: intake and assessment, case management, crisis intervention, psychotherapy and psycho-education, and residential support. Specialized services are available for persons with co-occurring behavioral health and substance use disorders and for young adults transitioning to the adult behavioral health system.
