Men's shelter located at 65 Massachusetts Avenue NW.

As a homeless shelter – on average, 16 veterans stay in the shelter each night and receive a bed for the night, three hot meals, and hot showers. Veterans benefit from all levels of service of the Mission, including social services; classes in GED preparation, Basic Adult Education, and job search skills; transitional housing for working veterans who cannot afford their own rent; and rehabilitation from drugs, alcohol, and other addictions.

The Mission provides no-cost emergency shelter, through a Memorandum of Understanding with the Veterans Administration, to provide short-term housing to veterans while they await placement in VA programs. Visit Veterans Services for more information.
