Westover Commons Apartment Homes is home to 84 households that have moderate incomes but want exceptional service and amenities. Residents live in two bedroom apartments that are energy efficient with their own front and back entrances, fully equipped kitchens and convenient laundry centers on-site.

The apartment community is in an established residential neighborhood with large trees and manicured lawns and just a few blocks from a library and city park. Schools, shopping and entertainment are just minutes away along with easy access to main roads and major highways.

Income guidelines apply.
