New Century Hospice of Farmville provides hospice care to enrich the quality of life as life's journey nears its completion.

Volunteers are needed to help families cope with their many challenges.

Volunteering takes no advanced medical training or great commitment. Your part can be simply reading to or spending time with a patient a few hours a week.

Volunteers can include individuals, families, youth and school groups or businesses.

If you are interested in becoming a volunteer or would like more information on volunteering, please call.
