IRS Accessible Forms and Publications

The Internal Revenue Service offers content in a variety of file formats to accommodate people who use assistive technology such as screen reading software, refreshable Braille displays, and voice recognition software. We have prepared hundreds of tax forms and publications that can be downloaded or viewed online in text, e-Braille, HTML, accessible PDF, and large print. For more details, visit the Information about the Alternative Media Center page.

Our PDF tax forms comply with Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the latest version of the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG); however, the IRS does not advise filling out forms on mobile devices unless you are using our specifically designed mobile-friendly forms.

Accessible IRS letters and notices

Taxpayers can choose to receive their IRS tax letters and notices in Braille, large print, audio or electronic formats. This includes notices about additional taxes or penalties owed. To receive notices in an alternative media format, select one of the following options.

- Select your preference on your IRS Individual Online account.
- Complete Form 9000, Alternative Media Preference, and include it with your tax return or mail it as a standalone form to the IRS.
- Call the tax assistance number at 800-829-1040 to elect your preferred format.

If you already received a notice or letter in print format and prefer it in Braille, large print, audio or text, select one of the options below.

- Call the Accessibility Helpline at 833-690-0598.
- Fax your notice and a cover sheet to: Alternative Media Center, at 855-473-2006. At the top of the cover sheet, write "Alternative Media Format" and include your name, address, daytime phone number and your preferred alternative media format.

- Mail your notice with a note stating your preferred format (Braille or large print) to:

Internal Revenue Service
Alternative Media Center
400 N. 8th St., Room G39
Richmond, VA 23219

Once the AMC receives your notice, it could take up to 15 business days to convert it to your preferred format and mail it back to you.
