The Coalition of Powhatan Churches gives assistance in many ways to the citizens of Powhatan County. The Coalition draws from many area churches to provide volunteer services to those who have need. The care given depends on the individual needs as all circumstances are not the same.

The Coalition offers emergency financial assistance to help with rent or mortgage or real estate tax bills to those qualified individuals. Please call for more information.

Other areas of help include assistance with medical bills, utility, and other bills. The Coalition also works with other agencies offering assistance.
