The Youth Movement Against Alzheimer's is a nonprofit created by a group of young individuals who are committed to changing the perception of Alzheimer's Disease. The members can be found in high schools and college campuses across the nation. These young advocates are always looking to grow and continue the movement towards encouraging the search for a cure. If you are interested in becoming an advocate, please join the Youth Movement Against Alzheimer's to create a culture where youth can embrace aging and alleviate the impact of Alzheimer's.
