Family Services, Inc. is a mental health agency that caters to those who have developmental and intellectual disabilities. We currently have an all-female group home that has 24-hour care. We strive to help these individuals with living a happy and healthy life by initiating them into community engagement, learning new skills, and coping and learning about their diagnosis.

We strive to have a positive and caring environment for our individuals. Our culture for individuals and staff promotes honesty, happiness, being a team player and showing that all staff and individuals matter. We celebrate each success of our individuals and want the best for them. We also encourage our staff to commit to understanding and valuing our individuals and it has proven to be a success.
