Heritage Park offers apartments near historic downtown Fredericksburg. Shops and restaurants of Central Park and I-95 are just moments away, yet Heritage Park is nestled in a park like setting. Residents can participate in organized functions in the community center, playground, and garden area. These activities include an active homework club, kids' summer camp, adult classes, community garden and a club for seniors in the community.

two or three bedroom apartments are on site and features large closets, separate dining area, large picture windows and eat-in kitchen. Homes are cable-ready and have central air conditioning. Four-legged friends are welcome at Heritage Park.
