Maimonides Health Center, formerly Beth Sholom Village offers a Skilled Nursing Facility that offers around-the-clock medical care. Professional help is always at hand. Skilled nursing services include medication administration and management as well as physical, occupational, and speech therapy.

The nursing facility offers kosher food and observance of Jewish holidays and customs.

The Home is a facility for both skilled and long-term care. Private and semi-private rooms are available. The Home has a specialized Alzheimer's and Dementia Unit with activities directed to the special needs of memory care patients. Rehabilitation services are also available at the facility.
